

Caritas Award and SCIAF

Resources and activities to put faith into action.

St Mungo's High School, Falkirk

SCIAF's Young Campaigner
Olivia McKibbin

SCIAF speaker

Arrange to visit a local primary school to deliver a SCIAF Assembly and workshop to younger pupils. We'll provide training and all the materials you will need.

Ask your parish priest if you can deliver a SCIAF talk during Mass. We will provide a short talk to read out, which lets parishioners know about the work of SCIAF and thanks them for their support.

Ask parish groups (youth, young adult, justice, care for creation group) if you can lead a presentation about SCIAF's work. We'll provide training and materials.

Email us to book a SCIAF training session for your Caritas pupils.

SCIAF office volunteer

SCIAF
Uniting to end poverty
Caritas Scotland

Could you commit to a regular one or two hours a week to help in the SCIAF office during Sep-Dec? We are looking for young people (age 17+) who are committed to faith witness and social justice.

You will receive full training and ongoing support. Together with SCIAF, this role will have a lasting impact on the people living in the world's poorest places, and on your personal faith journey.

Email us to find out how Caritas pupils (individually or in small groups) can apply for this volunteer role

SCIAF events organiser

Arrange a screening of Rugby for Peace, SCIAF's documentary, in your parish. Use the accompanying resources to lead a special event focused on peace, justice and prayer.

Email us to find out how Caritas pupils can set up a screening.
